MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Law Enforcement Official:

On March 5, it was my great privilege to name Mike Myszewski as the Administrator of the Division of Criminal Investigation. Mike is a long time Wisconsin law enforcement professional who shares my philosophy that law enforcement is a collaborative enterprise, best accomplished by working together. Under Mike's leadership, the Division of Criminal Investigation will not change its core mission to provide assistance to local law enforcement. We will, however, continuously strive to do it better.

Mike has a diverse and distinguished career in Wisconsin law enforcement. He has a comprehensive understanding of and appreciation for the demanding, dangerous, but rewarding work that law enforcement officers do every day. Mike started his career as a police officer with the Milwaukee Police Department in 1976. After earning his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Mike joined the Department of Justice in 1982 as a Special Agent in what was then known as the Narcotics and Vice Bureau. In that assignment, Mike was on the front lines, working undercover operations and executing search warrants. In 1989, Mike became a Special Agent in DCI's White Collar Crimes Bureau, focusing on public corruption. In 1997, Mike was promoted to a Special Agent in Charge of the High Technology & Support Services Unit of DCI. In 2003, he was promoted to Director of the Narcotics Bureau, the largest investigative bureau within DCI. I am happy to now promote him to Administrator of the Division of Criminal Investigation.

As important to me as his impressive resume is Mike's impressive character. In my many interactions with Mike, I have found him to be a professional of the highest integrity. He is committed to doing his job well, fairly and honestly.

I look forward to working with Mike to better accomplish our mutual public safety mission. I know he is excited to work with and assist you in his new capacity, as he has done for the last 25 years as a Special Agent, Special Agent in Charge, and Director.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "J.B. Van Hollen". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

State v. Alexander
2008 Wi App 9
Decided by the Wisconsin Court of Appeals-
January 30, 2008

Issue:

This case involved the propriety of a frisk of a person and a vehicle. The Court based on the totality of the circumstances found the frisk to be permissible.

Facts:

The police observed a vehicle passing them in an area which had recent shootings and they observed this vehicle turn red through a red light without stopping. Based on this traffic infraction the police attempted to stop the vehicle by activating their emergency lights. The vehicle did not stop right away and the police continued its pursuit when they noticed three people in the vehicle. The subjects in the vehicle were observed making furtive movements as though each was giving something to, or receiving something from, the other. They also observed the defendant, a passenger, lean forward towards the glove compartment of the car. After the furtive movements inside the vehicle stopped, the vehicle pulled over.

Based on the furtive movements, the delay in the vehicle pulling over, the high crime area and the time of day (9:19 pm) the police were concerned that there might be weapons in the car and called for backup. The officer then had the occupants exit the vehicle and did pat-downs on all of them. No weapons were found, but the officers did observe in the car a bottle of air freshener, some papers, and the auto manual on the driver seat. As these were items typically kept in the glove compartment they then did a protective frisk of the glove box and found a gun and a large amount of cocaine and marijuana.

The Defendant's Argument:

The defendant argued that the evidence should be suppressed since the police did not have the requisite reasonable suspicion of danger to trigger a frisk.

The State's Argument:

The state argued that there was a sufficient reasonable suspicion to justify a pat down of the vehicle occupants and a frisk of the glove box area.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court Holding:

The Wisconsin Court of Appeals agreed with the state and validated the frisks that were performed in this case. To support this conclusion the court focused on the following factors: 1) The quickness in relation to the stop as to when the frisks were conducted, 2) the officer's observations of furtive movements, 3) the officer's observations of things in the front seat that are normally kept in the glove box, 4) the fact that the location of the stop was a high crime area, and 5) the time of day. Consequently, based on the totality of the circumstances the court of appeals held that the frisk of the glove box was justified.

Note: It is interesting to note that the court highlighted the fact that the frisk occurred early in the contact as opposed to after the traffic stop had been completed. This is a trend of the courts to look with favor on frisks that occur early in the contact as this shows that the officer's were motivated by a safety concern from the very beginning. This is not to say that frisks later in the contact are always impermissible but rather if that is the case the officer in his/her reports should specify what occurred during the contact which suddenly triggered a safety concern. Therefore an officer should perform a frisk as soon as a legitimate safety concern arises and not delay in doing so.

Denial and Revocation of U.S. Passports on the Basis of State Arrest Warrants

We are pleased to inform you of a change in U.S. State Department regulations governing the denial, revocation, and restriction of U.S. passports. This recent change permits (but does not require) the Department to deny or revoke a passport for an individual who is the subject of an outstanding state or local warrant of arrest for a felony. Previously, our regulations only permitted denial or revocation of a passport on the basis of federal warrants of arrest for a felony. The purpose of this new regulation is to enhance U.S. law enforcement and our cooperation with state and local governments. To this end, I trust that the following information will be helpful. The new passport regulations are effective February 1, 2008. See 22 C.F.R. § 51.60(b)(9).

The names of all applicants for a U.S. passport are run against information contained in the Consular Lookout and Support System ("CLASS"). CLASS contains the names of individuals who are potentially ineligible to receive a passport for a variety of reasons, including for law enforcement purposes. Law enforcement authorities may request the denial or revocation of a passport on the basis of a federal, state, or local warrant of arrest for a felony, or a federal or state criminal order or condition of parole or probation forbidding departure from the United States (or the jurisdiction of the court), or a request for extradition, in accordance with 22 C.F.R. §§ 51.60 and 51.62.

Requests for denial or revocation of a passport on the basis of a state or local warrant of arrest for a felony must be sent in writing to:

U.S. Department of State
Office of Passport Services
Legal Affairs Division
2100 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, 3rd Floor
Washington, D.C. 20037

Phone: (202) 663-2662
Fax: (202) 663-2654

The request must include the individual's full name, date and place of birth, and a signed copy of the arrest warrant. It must also include the address and phone number of the officer to be contacted in the event of an application for a passport. Requests for revocation of a passport must include the last known address as well as any information which might be available regarding the individual current whereabouts.

Please notify the Legal Affairs Division at the address above when a subject for whom a passport request had been made is apprehended, when the warrant is quashed, or when passport action is otherwise no longer needed.

WPPA To Again Host Law Enforcement Week Breakfast

The Wisconsin Professional Police Association (WPPA) will host a pancake and sausage breakfast on Friday, May 9, to recognize all active and retired law enforcement officers. Although National Police Week is May 11-17, the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Memorial Ceremony will be held Friday, May 9, at the State Capitol.

This is the third year that the WPPA will offer the pancake and sausage breakfast to all law enforcement officers attending the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Memorial Ceremony. The breakfast will be free of charge; however, there will be an opportunity for those attending to make a contribution to a local food pantry. The WPPA has committed to making this an annual event to recognize all Wisconsin law enforcement officers – both active and retired.

The breakfast will be at the Olin Park Pavilion before the vehicle procession to the State Capitol to honor Wisconsin's fallen officers. We will begin serving at 9:00 a.m., and we invite everyone to attend.
