MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Law Enforcement Colleague –

In 2011, with passage of Act 35, Wisconsin implemented a licensing program to authorize Wisconsin residents to carry a concealed weapon (CCW). Upon satisfaction of the training requirement, a Wisconsin resident (or active military personnel stationed in Wisconsin) may submit their application to the Wisconsin Department of Justice's Firearm Unit and pending a successful background check, be issued a CCW license that is valid for five years.

The first Wisconsin CCW licenses were issued in November 2011, meaning these first licenses will expire this November. Initial demand for Wisconsin CCW licenses was extraordinarily high – in the first three months of the program, the Firearms Unit received more than 81,000 applications. Starting in July 2016, the Firearms Unit will begin sending renewal notices to licensees for the first time in the history of the program.

The Firearms Unit continues to experience very high demand for background checks for handgun purchases and new CCW licenses, having recently issued CCW license number 300,000. The Firearms Unit has already conducted 19,515 CCW background checks and 46,658 handgun hotline background checks this year alone. The demand for CCW license renewals is anticipated to be high. For the 12 months beginning July 2016, the Wisconsin Department of Justice has estimated that the Firearms Unit will receive a total of 302,200 background check requests, for an average of 5,811 background checks per week.

To provide customers with an improved application process, the Department will be launching a new web interface to allow Wisconsin residents to apply online for either a new CCW license or renewal license. In addition to providing improved customer service, the new web interface will assist the Firearms Unit by greatly reducing the data entry required of Unit staff and allow the analysts that review each background check to complete those checks as thoroughly and expeditiously as possible.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Brad Schimel'. The signature is fluid and cursive.

United States v. Paniagua-Garcia Decided by the US Court of Appeals- 7th Circuit 2/18/2016

Issue:

This case involved a traffic stop for texting while driving. The court held that the police did not properly stop a vehicle, because while they observed the driver holding a cell phone with his head bent towards the phone in a manner suggesting texting, there are too many other lawful uses of the phone to reasonably believe the subject is performing the one illegal function. While this case occurred in Indiana, it did occur in Wisconsin's circuit and Indiana's no texting while driving law is similar to Wisconsin's.

Facts:

An officer, in the course of passing a vehicle, observed the defendant holding a cell phone in his right hand and bending over it in a manner suggesting texting. The officer pulled over the vehicle because he felt the defendant was driving and texting. The defendant denied texting and an examination of the cell phone revealed that the defendant had not been texting, but was instead searching for music. The officer asked Garcia for consent to search the car, and the search uncovered five pounds of heroin concealed in the spare tire in the car's trunk.

The Defendant's Argument:

The defendant argued that he had been illegally stopped since the officer did not have either probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe that he was violating the no texting while driving law.

The State's Argument

The state argued that the officer's visual observations were sufficient to justify a reasonable suspicion stop.

The Court's Holding:

The court agreed with the defendant and held that the traffic stop was unlawful. The court reasoned that there were just too many lawful uses of a cell phone, to reasonably conclude the defendant was doing the one unlawful function. The court felt it was right to be worried about texting and driving, but chided Indiana for having only one prohibited use of a cell phone while on the road.

Note:

The end result from this case is that it will be difficult to make an initial traffic stop based on a texting while driving suspicion. But this legislation still has value for its deterrent effect on drivers who want to do the right thing.

SUBMIT A LAW ENFORCEMENT MEMBER FOR RECOGNITION

The Department of Justice (DOJ) would like to recognize and provide a format for agencies and peers to recognize law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention officers who exhibit exceptional commitment, dedicated community service, and ethical leadership on a daily basis as they perform their duties. While many awards exist to recognize exceptional service, the so called "routine efforts" can sometimes go unnoticed.

DOJ would like to start featuring these dedicated public servants in the Law Enforcement Bulletin. If you are interested in participating in this great recognition opportunity please submit a candidate through the electronic form now available in the Law Enforcement Bulletin section of WILENET.
