MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Law Enforcement Colleague,

In September of 2013, the Wisconsin Department of Justice -- Training and Standards Bureau began collaborating with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs (WDVA) in an effort to focus on transitioning veterans who have served our country back into the civilian workforce. According to WDVA, Wisconsin was one of six states selected by the National Governors Association (NGA) to participate in the Veterans' Licensing and Certification Demonstration Policy Academy that will assist states in easing veterans' transition from military service to civilian life and meaningful employment.

The Training and Standards Bureau held a focus group in February of 2014 to evaluate our current reciprocity application process for military police officers. Based on the focus group discussion, we determined that in order to create a more accelerated pathway for military police officers attempting to gain civilian law enforcement employment in Wisconsin, we needed to amend the reciprocity application requirements for military police officers.

At the Law Enforcement Standards Board meeting in June, the board approved the following change to the reciprocity application requirements for military police officers:

Military Police/Security Forces/Master of Arms Veterans:

Military veterans who have held a Military Occupational Specialty as a law enforcement officer and who meet the second and third conditions outlined below may take the reciprocity exam prior to receiving a conditional offer of employment. A passing exam score will grant the applicant a certifiable status in Wisconsin for 12 months. There is no cost for the exam for military veterans who meet these criteria.

Eligibility requirements:

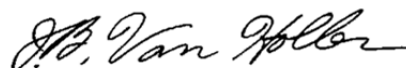

1. Applicants must meet the minimum employment requirements for law enforcement and tribal law enforcement officers set forth in Wisconsin Administrative Code Chapter LES 2, and must have gained employment as a law enforcement or tribal law enforcement officer with a Wisconsin law enforcement or tribal law enforcement agency, or must have a conditional offer of law enforcement or tribal law enforcement employment with a Wisconsin law enforcement agency.

2. Applicants must have completed preparatory law enforcement officer training in another state (or with the military or federal government) that is similar to Wisconsin's 520-hour preparatory law enforcement officer training academy.

3. Applicants must have held employment as a certified or licensed military or civilian law enforcement or tribal law enforcement officer full-time, for a minimum of one (1) year fully empowered and paid for all hours worked, and left certified or licensed law enforcement or tribal law enforcement officer employment voluntarily with a good record and been out of that employment for three (3) years or less.

Applicants who meet all of the above requirements are permitted to complete the Reciprocity Examination in lieu of the 520-hour preparatory law enforcement officer training academy. I'm pleased the Wisconsin Department of Justice was able to partner with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs and the National Governors Association in this effort to assist our veterans.

Sincerely,

J.B. Van Hollen
Attorney General

State v. Padley Decided by the Wisconsin Court of Appeals 5/22/14

Issue:

The court of appeals dealt with the constitutionality of 343.305(3) (ar) 2 allowing the police to proceed with Implied Consent protocol for a person involved in a crash causing death or great bodily harm, and for whom the police have a reasonable suspicion the subject committed a traffic infraction. The court of appeals upheld the constitutionality of this statute.

Facts:

The subject was involved in a crash with a motorcycle. The crash caused death. The defendant told the police that the crash happened after the car she was driving missed a turn and then used a driveway to attempt a U-turn. As the subject was attempting the u-turn it crashed with a motorcycle killing a passenger on the motorcycle and injuring the motor cycle driver. The subject showed no overt signs of impairment but still the police went through the Implied Consent protocol and the defendant consented to the blood draw. The blood test revealed that the defendant was operating a motor vehicle with a detectable amount of a restricted controlled substance.

The Defendant's argument:

The defendant argued that the Implied Consent statute as it related to her incident is unconstitutional as she had no signs of impairment. She argued that Implied Consent forces her to submit to a test, when the police did not have any suspicion that the blood contained evidence.

The State's Argument:

The state argued that the statute is constitutional and hence the blood draw evidence was admissible.

The Court of Appeal's Ruling:

The court rejected the defendant's argument that the blood test was compelled. The court reasoned that the defendant had a choice; to give consent to a blood draw or to withdraw consent and suffer implied consent law sanctions. The court conceded that the choice might be designed to induce consent, but it is a choice nonetheless. The gist of the court of appeals opinion is that ultimately the blood draw was the product of a voluntary consent, and that since the statute does not force the defendant to consent it is constitutional.

Note:

This issue may not yet be permanently resolved as it is likely the defendant will seek review from the Wisconsin Supreme Court. However, for now, proceed with business as usual under this statute. Moreover, in the event of a refusal under Implied Consent pursuant to this statute, under McNeely, you should proceed to attempt to procure a search warrant for the blood. While it is less clear cut than a traditional OWI refusal case, you probably can get a warrant referencing the crash and the refusal as the factors formulating probable cause.

Incident Summaries

New York State Police (NYSP), Albany, New York, Veteran Trooper, aged 42, with over 13 years law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally struck by vehicle. On 05/29/2014 at approximately 12 p.m., trooper was outside his patrol vehicle conducting traffic stop on interstate when he was struck by passing vehicle. Victim Trooper was killed instantly. After striking victim trooper, subject vehicle continued for short distance before stopping. Driver of subject vehicle fled into nearby woods and was taken into custody following search by NYSP, Local, and Federal law enforcement officers. Preliminary information indicates subject admitted to intentionally hitting victim trooper with his vehicle; however, investigation is ongoing.

Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), California, Veteran Police Officer, aged 32, with 6 years law enforcement experience, was fatally injured in automobile accident 05/04/2014. At approximately 3:43 a.m., LAPD officer and his partner observed vehicle driving at high rate of speed. When officers began pursuing vehicle to investigate, pursued vehicle negotiated u-turn. As LAPD patrol vehicle began to negotiate u-turn, an SUV crashed into drivers side door of patrol unit, immediately incapacitating victim officer. Victims partner, who was in passengers seat, used his cell phone to request assistance due to patrol vehicles radio being inoperable. Both LAPD officers were transported to hospital. Victim officer was pronounced deceased and victims partner suffered broken jaw and was released following day.

Passenger of SUV was arrested shortly after accident when his sister attempted to drive him away from area. Driver of SUV was also picked up by his sister and taken home. He turned himself in later that day.

Subsequent investigating revealed actions of driver of SUB were intentional and that he was an associate of driver of original vehicle being pursued. Los Angeles County District Attorneys Office filed murder charges against driver of SUV in addition to other counts of manslaughter, leaving scene of an accident. Charges may be filed later on passenger of SUV.

Norfolk Police Department (NPD), Virginia, Veteran Police Officer, with 5 years law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot on 05/30/2014. At approximately 10:50p.m., subject began randomly shooting and continued to shoot from his vehicle as he drove. As result of subjects random shooting spree, 17 year-old victim who was seated in another vehicle was fatally shot. Information received from 911 callers directed law enforcement to location of subjects abandoned vehicle. NPD Officer arrived at this location, along with off-duty NPD Officer who arrived to assist. Upon arrival, both officers were met with gunfire coming from inside residence. According to initial field report, subject was firing at officers utilizing AR-47 rifle. These high-powered rounds penetrated patrol vehicles door and victim officers body armor, resulting in fatal injury. Off-duty assisting officer was also wounded and was transported to local hospital where he was treated and released.

Subsequent to incident, subject again went mobile in vehicle and was encountered by third officer. As pursuit continued, subject began firing from his vehicle at officers patrol vehicle. This officer used his patrol vehicle to ram or "pit" subjects vehicle. Subject exited vehicle apparently disoriented by impact. Officer saw silhouette of firearm in subjects hand as subject staggered and retreated behind cover. Subject came out from behind cover, but officer did not see subject with weapon at that time. Officer ordered subject to ground. As officer began to subdue subject, subject attacked officer and attempted to gain possession of officers weapon. Officer fought off subject with one hand and fired rounds from low-ready position, fatally shooting subject.

Salt River Police Department (SRPD), Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Reservation (SRPMIR), Arizona,

Officer, aged 37, with approximately 7 years law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot. On 05/24/2014, officer was assigned to "Driving Under the Influence" enforcement unit as was driving a fully-marked SRPD police truck. At about 3a.m., with red and blue emergency lights activated, officer attempted to conduct traffic stop. Officer followed subject vehicle, which was occupied by three individuals, into parking lot of local gas station/convenience store. Subject vehicle traveled past front of store, past gas pumps to far side of parking lot, and then stopped after turning more than 90-degrees. Officer stopped his marked police truck facing drivers side of subject vehicle.

As subject vehicle was coming to stop, from passenger who was armed with rifle exited subject vehicle and positioned himself over roof of subject vehicle, facing marked police truck. Subject fired rifle twice while officer was seated in police truck and was adjusting vehicles spot light. One round struck in police trucks right-side mirror and second round struck victim officer in head. Other SRPD Officers who were on an unrelated traffic stop across the street heard two gunshots and responded to investigate. Responding SRPD Officers observed victim officer still seated in his police truck with severe head trauma. Victim officer was transported to emergency room, where he was pronounced deceased at 3:41a.m.

All three occupants of subject vehicle, who were tribal members of SRPMIR, fled scene of incident on foot. Surveillance camera captured subject who shot victim officer throw rifle while he was fleeing. Two of three subjects were taken into custody as they attempted to flee on foot. Third subject was located approximately 7 hours later on the SRPMIR and was taken into custody without incident.

Griffin Police Department, Georgia,

Officer, aged 43, with over 4 years law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot on 05/31/2014. At approximately 2:21a.m., officer was performing duties at department sanctioned off duty job at local restaurant. Officer, who was in uniform, was in establishment and attempting to calm down rowdy patrons. Officer placed individual under arrest for disturbing peace and was escorting individual outside to parking lot. Thereafter, individuals associate shot officer in back numerous times with .40-caliber handgun. One round was stopped by victim officers body armor; however, other rounds circumvented body armor and fatally struck victim officer in torso. Subsequently, victim officers brother, who was visiting, observed shooting. Brother fearing for his life and that of his brother engaged subject with gunfire resulting in subject being wounded. Individual who had previously been escorted out of restaurant and subject who fatally shot victim officer were arrested and charged with murder.

A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER YOU SHOULD KNOW

SUBMIT A LAW ENFORCEMENT MEMBER FOR RECOGNITION

Law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention personnel work tirelessly day-in and day-out to serve and protect our citizens. All too often their daily performance is taken for granted and only becomes newsworthy when something extraordinary happens.

The Department of Justice (DOJ) would like to recognize and provide a format for agencies and peers to recognize law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention officers who exhibit exceptional commitment, dedicated community service, and ethical leadership on a daily basis as they perform their duties. While many awards exist to recognize exceptional service, the so called "routine efforts" can sometimes go unnoticed.

DOJ would like to start featuring these dedicated public servants in the Law Enforcement Bulletin. If you are interested in participating in this great recognition opportunity please submit a candidate through the electronic form now available in the Law Enforcement Bulletin section of WILENET.

Humane officers: A good answer to the age old problem of animal abuse and neglect

Registration deadline for training is September 17

By Yvonne Bellay, DVM, MS

“Teen accused of slitting dog’s throat”

“Experts fear cat killer is capable of worse”

These are the headlines no police chief or sheriff wants to see in the morning paper. Why? Animal cases arouse public emotion unlike almost any other kind of issue. In these days of animal rights debate, the emotion has reached new heights. And animal cases are complex, crossing the lines of cruelty laws, public health, zoning ordinances, privacy and cultural differences. They demand some knowledge of animal husbandry. Evidence collection is specialized – collecting fecal samples is not the same as dusting for fingerprints. These cases are never cut and dried, and they’re always more complex than simple issues of food and water. They can eat up your time and resources, and still come to nothing. If it turns out right, you’re a hero. If it turns out wrong, you’re incompetent, unethical or both.

And so, too often, animal cases get ignored while you focus on crimes with human victims.

Animal cases almost never present the proverbial win-win situation, it’s true. But they don’t have to be no-win cases, and they don’t have to drain resources from other law enforcement efforts. And given the clear link between animal abuse and domestic abuse, a successful prosecution in an animal case may well prevent future crimes where humans get hurt.

What’s the answer? Appointing a trained, certified humane officer to take charge of animal cases and complaints. Now’s the time to think about doing just that, because the state’s once-a-year training course is coming up this fall.

The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection will offer its annual humane officer training course September 22-26, 2014 in Madison. This 40-hour course teaches a special set of skills and a body of law that applies only to animal cases. The training makes the job of investigating these cases easier to handle and leads to a more enforceable case against the offender.

As a trained humane officer, you will learn the differences between photographing an animal hoarder’s home and a crime scene. You’ll know the process for taking a fecal sample and how it differs from taking fingerprints and whether a ratty-looking coat is seasonal shedding or a sign of neglect.

The curriculum covers a wide range of topics including the role of an animal investigator, Wisconsin animal law, evaluation of cruelty, nutrition, photography, and evidence collection specifically relating to animal cases. Training is conducted by veterinarians, attorneys and law officers with years of experience in investigating animal cases. Hands-on training at the University of Wisconsin-Madison barns is another highly rated feature of the class.

Watch your mailbox for our registration brochure, which should arrive soon or contact Gena Goldade at 608-224-4889, e-mail gena.goldade@wi.gov. You can also get the details and download a registration form on our website: <http://datcp.wisconsin.gov>, under the “Animals” pull-down menu.
