MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Law Enforcement Official:

On October 21 and 22 I hosted this year's Attorney General's Law Enforcement Summit in Wisconsin Dells. Over 200 participants came together from all over the state to share and learn together.

Law enforcement leaders from local and state authorities joined me and Wisconsin Department of Justice staff to participate in presentations and discussions about new and routine matters. Formal presentations included a segment on our cooperative efforts to fight Internet Crimes Against Children, a law enforcement-centered public records review, the Law Enforcement Services legal update, and opportunities to assess investigative techniques and resources, and to hear from the prosecutors that bring the cases to court. Important informal opportunities were created in the program to allow and encourage discussion and information exchange with Summit participants and organizers because when we work together, we work better.

The response I received during and since the Summit convinces me that our program was very successful. The reviews acknowledge that law enforcement partners and leaders truly understand my commitment to a Department of Justice that assists local law enforcement and adds strength to the criminal justice system.

At DOJ – our specially trained lawyers, forensic scientists, DCI investigators, analysts, legal assistants, librarians and program assistants, education specialists, technology information and support staff, program administrators and victim-witness specialists all exist to assist our partners and clients and to protect Wisconsin.

It was my pleasure to host our partners. I'm already looking forward to next year.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "J.B. Van Hollen". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

*J.B. Van Hollen
Wisconsin Attorney General*

LEGAL POINTS

If you have any comments regarding Legal Points, please contact Dave Perlman, Assistant Attorney General, P.O. Box 7070, Madison, WI 53707-7070, 608/266-1420, fax: 608/266-7869.

Montejo v. Louisiana Decided by the United States Supreme Court - May 26, 2009

Issue:

This case dealt with the rule enunciated in Michigan v. Jackson, 475 US 625 (1986) which held that when a charged defendant has counsel, the police are prohibited from attempting to interrogate him/her. The United States Supreme Court again ignored stare decisis and overruled Jackson. Specifically the high court held that it is permissible for law enforcement to approach a subject in custody on a charged matter for which he/she has an attorney provided that the subject has not yet invoked his Miranda right to an attorney. In other words the procurement of an attorney to fight a charge is not an assertion of the Miranda right to an attorney during a custodial questioning.

Facts:

Montejo was arrested in connection with a robbery and a murder. At his "72 hour hearing" the court ordered that the Office of Indigent Defender be appointed to represent Montejo. Later that day two detective approached Montejo, even though he had counsel and read him his Miranda rights, and he waived his rights and further incriminated himself.

Louisiana Court Holding:

The Louisiana high court held that there was no violation of "Jackson" as the defendant had not expressly requested counsel but one was merely appointed for him. The Louisiana Court opined that the "Jackson" rule is not triggered until a defendant expressly states that he wants counsel to represent him on a charged matter.

Montejo's Argument:

Montejo argued that the Jackson rule is triggered when counsel has been appointed regardless of whether a defendant makes a formal request for one.

The Supreme Court Holding:

The court found difficulties with either Louisiana's or Montejo's interpretation of Jackson. The court reasoned that Louisiana's version was unfair to those states where a defendant is appointed counsel without being heard on the subject. The court further opined that Montejo's version ignored the basic purpose of the "Jackson" rule, which is to discourage police badgering. Accordingly the Court overruled Jackson and from now on the police may initiate a contact with a custodial defendant who has been charged so long as the police then reads the Miranda warning before the interrogation begins. The court reasoned that Miranda and its protective rules are sufficient to safeguard a defendant's sixth amendment right without the Jackson rule. Consequently a represented subject in custody who has not yet invoked his Miranda right to an attorney is "fair game" for a police approach.

Cautionary Note: This is not something the police should solicit DA advice for during the pendency of a case. This is because the DA's office has an ethical obligation not to interfere with opposing counsel and they would have no choice but to tell you not to approach the subject even though under this case such a contact would be constitutionally permitted.

The general Department of Justice mailing address is P.O. Box 7857, Madison, Wisconsin, 53707-7857. Offices are physically located at 17 W. Main Street, Madison, Wisconsin.

Address all correspondence to: Editor, Law Enforcement Bulletin, P.O. Box 7857, Madison, WI 53707-7857, phone 608/266-5710, fax 608/266-1656, davisonde@doj.state.wi.us. The deadline for all submissions is the 15th of the month prior to the month of publication.

The matter contained in this bulletin is intended for use and information of all those involved in the criminal justice system. Nothing contained herein is to be construed as an official opinion or expression of policy by the Attorney General, the Department of Justice, or any other law enforcement official of the State of Wisconsin unless expressly so indicated.

IN MEMORIAM

We regret to inform you of the loss of our colleague and friend, Craig Klyve.

Craig's contributions to the Wisconsin Department of Justice and the Division of Criminal Investigation are many and he will be sadly missed. As the director of DCI's Bureau of Investigative Services, Craig managed and helped lead many of the Division's important operations and initiatives. He supervised our Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) efforts and brought the affiliate participation, administrative support and the ICAC program's success to new heights. He was a member of the National FBI Academy's 99th class.

Our condolences and sympathy to Craig's wife, our colleague Assistant Attorney General Rebecca Weise, and the Klyve/Weise families. Please join us in supporting them in this time of great sorrow.

FBI OFFICERS KILLED

These statistics represent preliminary information received by the FBI, January through September 2009: Thirty-five law enforcement officers have been killed due to criminal actions. During the same time period in 2008, 34 officers were slain. Sixteen deaths occurred in the south, seven in the west, six in the northeast, five in the midwest, and one death occurred in Puerto Rico. Circumstances involving the 35 slain officers are as follows: nine were answering disturbance calls (five being domestic-related), six were performing traffic pursuits/stops, five were investigating suspicious persons or circumstances, four officers were involved in tactical situations, four were slain while attempting other arrests, three were ambushed, one was responding to a robbery call, one was responding to a burglary call, one was transporting a prisoner, and one officer was handling person with mental illness. Firearms were used in 33 of the 35 killings (nineteen handguns, nine rifles, two shotguns, and three firearm types not reported), and two officers were killed with vehicles. Sixteen officers were wearing protective vests. There have been 28 separate incidents in which these 35 officers have been slain. Twenty-seven of the 28 incidents have been cleared by arrest or exceptional means. Thirty-seven law enforcement officers have been accidentally killed. During the same time period in 2008, 46 officers were accidentally killed. Nineteen deaths occurred in the south, nine in the west, five in the northeast, and four in the midwest. Twenty-seven officers were killed in automobile accidents, four were struck by vehicles, two were killed in motorcycle accidents, two were accidentally shot, one was killed in an aircraft crash, and one officer was struck by a falling tree limb.

Incident Summaries

Georgetown Police Department, Delaware, Patrol Officer, aged 29 with one year of law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot on 09/01/2009. At approximately 7 p.m., Patrol Officer and Corporal responded to "shots fired" call. Upon arriving at scene, Patrol Officer was fatally shot prior to exiting patrol unit. Corporal was struck in neck by bullet fragments but was treated and released from hospital. Other responding officers subsequently located, apprehended, and charged one subject with murder. Second subject, whose whereabouts are unknown, fled scene. Although, local charges have been filed for this subject. Third individual was in backseat of subject's vehicle at time of shooting and assisted wounded officers at scene. This individual was initially taken into custody but has since been released.

North St. Paul Police Department (NSPPD), Minnesota, Veteran Police Officer, with nine years law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot on 09/07/2009. During morning hours, NSPPD received call from individual claiming subject was violating order of protection. Before responding to call, NSPPD Officer requested backup. Maplewood Police Department (MPD) Officer responded to assist NSPPD Officer. At approximately 8:30 a.m., NSPPD and MPD officers confronted subject at apartment. During confrontation, NSPPD Officer and subject were fatally shot and MPD Officer received non-life threatening injury. Night before this incident, NSPPD officers attempted to arrest subject for violating order of protection; however, they were unable to locate subject. In addition, subject was previously arrested on 05/18/2009 and on 08/26/2009 for violating order of protection.

Lee County Sheriff's Office, Alabama, Deputy Sheriff, with three years law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally injured on 09/24/2009 at approximately 12:50 p.m. During traffic stop, deputies followed subject's vehicle into residential driveway. Deputy Sheriff exited patrol unit to approach vehicle when subject drove forward, striking Victim Deputy and pinning him under his vehicle. Assisting Deputy fired gunshots in direction of subject's vehicle. Subsequently, assisting Deputy removed uninjured subject from his vehicle and took him into custody. Subject was charged with capital murder.

Sedgwick County Sheriff's Office, Kansas, Deputy Sheriff, with over one year of law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot on 09/28/2009. At approximately 11:42 a.m., Deputy Sheriff was dispatched to investigate report of larceny. Deputy Sheriff arrived at address but was unable to contact anyone at front door; therefore, Deputy radioed dispatch to request complainant to be re-contacted. When dispatch contacted complainant via telephone, complainant instructed officer to contact him behind residence. Deputy Sheriff went to rear of residence. Subject, who was hiding behind tree, opened fire on Victim Deputy with lever action .30-30 caliber rifle, striking Victim Deputy in side of abdomen. Subject approached Victim Deputy, who was lying on ground, and attempted to shoot him again but rifle malfunctioned. Subject took Deputy's 9mm service handgun and pointed firearm at Victim Deputy. Deputy raised his leg in defensive manner resulting in subject shooting through Victim Deputy's foot with round that ultimately lodged in Deputy's bulletproof vest. Subject then fled scene. At about 12:01 p.m., Victim Deputy radioed dispatch to report that he had been shot. Victim Deputy was transported via ambulance to medical center where he succumbed to his wounds a few hours later. Authorities from local and federal agencies responded to scene of incident, which was subject's parents' residence. Officers surrounded house and unsuccessfully attempted negotiations. Gas and robot with camera were later introduced into house. It was suspected that subject may have escaped into rural area surrounding house. Two Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives agents and one Kansas Highway Patrol trooper drove through nearby fields to flush out subject, who fired at officers. During brief gun battle, subject was fatally wounded. It was subsequently determined that subject had remarked that he was going to "kill a cop."

Additional details regarding these incidents are not available at this time. Should you wish to obtain information for condolence purposes, please contact your department's Law Enforcement Online (LEO) representative.

WISCONSIN LAW ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORY

The Department of Justice, Training and Standards Bureau is in the process of updating their database records, which will then replace the current Law Enforcement Directory database. Letters were mailed, in July, requesting agencies to review current database records and to submit any changes to the Training and Standards Bureau. We will not be publishing changes or updating the Law Enforcement Directory on WILENET until all changes are received and processed. Upon completion of the database project, the newly revised Wisconsin Law Enforcement Directory will be posted to WILENET. Thank you for your patience during this project.

# 7606 – SEXUAL ASSAULT – Platteville Police Department, WI

The Platteville Police Department is seeking assistance from the community in locating the suspect that sexually assaulted a woman in the City of Platteville.

On Saturday, September 19, 2009, at approximately 12:50 a.m., a female reported being sexually assaulted by an unknown male. This assault occurred while the victim was walking home from the downtown area, in the City of Platteville. It is suspected that the male was in the downtown tavern area of Platteville prior to the assault.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic male with light skin tone, medium build. The suspect appeared to be in good physical condition, 5'8" to 5'10" in height and weighing 180-200lbs. He is also described as having dark hair, brown eyes, and clear complexion with no facial hair. The suspect is believed to be 25-29 years of age.

Distinctive features are a short pony tail and what appeared to be black moles on his right cheek.

If you have any information that would assist in this investigation please contact the undersigned.
