MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Law Enforcement Colleague –

The Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory (WSCL) continues to observe a high intake of drug possession cases. Quite often these cases include the request for analysis of DNA and/or fingerprints, and a short turnaround time due to demands of prosecutors taking a case to trial. As a 25-year prosecutor, I have witnessed firsthand how the dedicated and talented WSCL staff contributes to successful prosecutions and puts the bad guys behind bars. To facilitate rapid and efficient analysis of these cases, the WSCL requests that appropriate standards be submitted with the evidence. This allows the lab to process both simultaneously and provide a report of findings.

It is always necessary to submit reference standards from any individuals associated with the case, victims, eliminations, and suspects – even when the suspect is already in CODIS. This request is dictated by the FBI's rules governing the CODIS system. Offender samples are not stored as stringently as evidence and do not have a chain of custody associated with the sample; therefore, we cannot use them for direct comparisons. This is why a potential CODIS match to an offender is treated as an investigative lead and not a confirmation.

Even if the suspect's profile is in CODIS, and their DNA matches to the evidence DNA profile obtained, entered, and searched in CODIS, the lab will request a new buccal swab be collected and submitted by the investigating law enforcement agency. This then confirms the CODIS hit, and establishes a match to the buccal swab submitted as evidence—which will have a proper chain of custody established with the sample.

The new buccal swab submission allows for direct comparison to any evidentiary profiles, which essentially negates the need for discussion of the CODIS hit details in court, which typically isn't allowed in testimony at the jury trial as the courts don't want the jury to learn that the defendant is on file for previous crimes (a bias issue).

If you have any questions regarding submission of evidence to the WSCL, please contact your area service lab: <https://www.doj.state.wi.us/dles/crime-labs/service-area-map>.

Thank you again for your support and participation.

Very truly yours,

Brad D. Schimel
Attorney General

Hello Public Information Officers!

The communications team at DOJ is at your service 24/7 to assist you with press and media questions, review press releases, or any other needs that arise. However, they need your help assembling a master list of local law enforcement agency PIOs.

If your agency has identified a PIO, or staff member who uses social media and/or communicates with the press, please fill out this online form:

In April 2015, Wisconsin implemented a new law that significantly impacted the collection of reference DNA samples. In addition to all felony convictions (adults and juveniles), 2015 Wisconsin Act 20 expanded DNA collection laws to include a subset of violent felonious acts at arrest (adults and juveniles) as well as all misdemeanor convictions from adults and a subset from juveniles.

The law has several factors that impacted the Wisconsin DNA Databank as well as law enforcement. First, a legal interpretation determined the legislative intent was to limit misdemeanor conviction collections to individuals for whom the date of the offense occurred on or after April 1, 2015. Second, the law prevents the laboratory from processing an arrest DNA sample until probable cause is established and requires destruction of an arrest DNA sample at one year if it is not established. These legislative modifications significantly transformed the workload and workflow, requiring additional staff, facilities, and software to meet the expanded requirements.

In 2015, the Wisconsin DNA Databank received over 24,000 reference DNA samples, roughly a twofold increase from 2014. Approximately 50% were felony samples, 25% were misdemeanor samples, and 25% were arrest samples. In the first two quarters of 2016, the Wisconsin DNA Databank received almost 20,000 reference DNA samples, of which 50% are misdemeanor samples. Based on these estimates, the DNA Databank is projected to receive over 36,000 reference DNA samples in 2016.

2015	Total	Felony Convictions	Misdemeanor Convictions	Arrests	Errors	Non-Compliant
Count	24,194	11,344	6,402	6,448	6,652	1,231
Percent		47%	26%	26%	28%	5%

In 2015, approximately 5% of samples received were returned to law enforcement agencies because the collection was not statutorily eligible. Approximately 30% of samples contained an error requiring resolution prior to processing. Further, due to the probable cause requirement only a small subset of the arrest samples received in 2015 have been processed and approximately 15% of the arrest samples received in 2015 have been destroyed because probable cause was never established.

In addition to increased sample intake, the Wisconsin DNA Databank reported a total of 684 investigative leads in 2015, a 1.2 fold increase from 2014 (561). Importantly, over 30% of the investigative leads provided to law enforcement were high priority matches (sexual assaults and homicides). Only ten of these matches were associated with an arrest sample, and of those, only four provided investigative leads; the rest linked to the case for which the individual was arrested. Of note, a significant number of investigative leads have been linked to misdemeanor reference DNA samples. An interesting example of the influence of misdemeanor sample collections is as follows: On August 8, 2016, a recently entered misdemeanor conviction sample hit to a sexual assault of a child case sent by Milwaukee PD (offense date: 09/16/2015). The individual involved in the hit had been collected for the misdemeanor 947.01(1) disorderly conduct.

In 2017, there are several new changes on the horizon. First, the DNA Databank will be releasing a new submission form. This submission form will be available on eTIME, WILENET, and the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory website. The changes to the form are intended to prevent errors and make form completion easier for law enforcement. The DNA Databank will also be simplifying the DNA Databank Collection Kit. Currently, there are eleven separate items in the collection kit; the new kit will contain only three. The new kit will contain an EasiCollect+ collection device, a collection envelope, and a return envelope. These kits will remain free of charge to law enforcement agencies. The timeline of the changes is uncertain but extensive communication will happen prior. The DNA Databank intends to implement the new kit slowly and in multiple stages throughout the state to allow for increased training and preparation.

Instructive posters, documents, and video presentations are available on both WILENET and the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory website to assist with collecting and submitting a reference DNA sample to the DNA Databank. If more training or resources is required please contact the Wisconsin DNA Databank at 608-266-2031 or DNADatabank@doj.state.wi.us.

Birchfield v. North Dakota (OWI and Blood Draws) Decided by the United States Supreme Court, June 23rd, 2016

Introduction

The United States Supreme Court ruled that it violates the 4th Amendment to provide criminal penalties to motorists who refuse a blood test, though it is permissible to do so if a driver refuses a breath test. The distinction between blood and breath was made because the Court opined that a blood test is more intrusive. The opinion was generated by a consolidation of cases in two states, Minnesota and North Dakota, both of which have statutes that criminalize refusals. Since Wisconsin does not criminalize refusals, this case and its substantial discussions of the issues do not relate to us.

Here are the case's key points:

The Court Holding

- The case is only relevant to states that criminalize refusals. The Court specifically endorsed implied consent statutes, like ours, that don't criminalize refusals. It wrote:

"Our prior opinions [e.g. McNeely] have referred approvingly to the general concept of implied consent laws that impose civil penalties and evidentiary consequences [such as Wisconsin's Implied Consent law] on motorists who refuse to comply. Petitioners do not question the constitutionality of those laws, and nothing we say here should be read to cast doubt on them." (Emphasis added)

- The decision reaffirms McNeely, requiring search warrants for blood in the event of a refusal, unless exigent circumstances exist.
- It does not clarify our current confusion of how to handle an unconscious driver. This issue is pending with the Wisconsin Supreme Court, and until it is resolved, our recommendation is to ignore our statute permitting a warrantless blood draw of an unconscious driver, and to instead get a warrant.

Practical Points

- There is no need to change the Informing the Accused form or to change implied consent procedures as a result of this decision. As has been the case since McNeely, when someone refuses the breath or blood test, officers should seek a warrant for blood, unless exigent circumstances exist.
- Even though the case holds that a police officer can get a breath test under a search incident to arrest theory without going through implied consent, the police should still continue to handle breath as they currently do: go through Implied Consent and if you get a refusal you have the option to seek a warrant for blood.
- For the unconscious driver, seek a search warrant for blood.

ULTIMATE BOTTOM LINE

No change in Wisconsin. Business as Usual.

Of course, as always, rely on how your prosecutor wishes to handle these matters.

FBI REPORT ON OFFICERS KILLED

Law Enforcement Officers Killed in the Line of Duty Summary Report – 2016

These statistics represent preliminary information received by the FBI during January 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016.

The FBI did not provide a monthly statistics update at the time of this publication.

Incident Summaries

Fairbanks Police Department, Alaska

Sergeant, Aged 34, with 11 years of law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot at approximately midnight on 10/15/2016, while responding to shots fired call. Sergeant contacted subject while in his patrol vehicle. Subject opened fire as sergeant was exiting his vehicle and struck him multiple times. Sergeant suffered multiple injuries. Including shrapnel from his body armor entering his left eye, causing loss of sight. Victim sergeant was able to return fire but subject overtook him. Physically assaulted him, and stole his marked police vehicle.

Subject was apprehended on 10/18/2016. Victim sergeant underwent surgery for his injuries on 10/27/2016, but suffered complications and succumbed to his injuries on 10/28/2016.

Modoc County Sheriff's Office (MCSO), California

Deputy Sheriff, Aged 31, with 2 years of law enforcement experience with agency, was fatally shot on 10/19/2016. At approximately 10:30am., deputy was dispatched to family disturbance. Upon entering property to investigate, deputy was confronted by subject. Preliminary investigation indicates deputy was fatally shot by subject using 7.62X39 millimeter rifle. Subject then fled scene of incident when he was intercepted on nearby road by sheriff of MCSO, who was also responding to call. Subject fired on sheriff, who returned fire and wounded subject. Subject was taken into custody. Sheriff sustained minor wounds during encounter with subject, but immediately returned to duty. Wounded subject was treated at scene and later transported to medical center; he is expected to recover from his injuries. It is anticipated subject will be charged with capital murder.

Rusk County Sheriff's Department (RCSD), Wisconsin

Veteran Deputy Sheriff, Aged 33, with over 8 years of law enforcement experience, was fatally shot on 10/29/2016. At approximately 10:55pm., deputy was on patrol and observed suspicious vehicle in field. Deputy notified dispatch of his observation and location. Deputy was not heard from again. When backup RCSD and Ladysmith Police Department officers arrived, they found victim deputy deceased in his vehicle as result of gunshot wound. It is believed weapon used to kill victim deputy was .30-06 rifle.

Investigators identified subject who lived next to field where suspicious vehicle had been spotted by victim deputy. Several law enforcement agencies assisted RCSD in effort to locate and apprehend subject. At approximately 10:18am., on 10/30/2016, subject was taken into custody. He is currently being held in jail and is awaiting charges.

Additional details regarding incidents are not available. Should you wish to obtain information for condolence purposes, please contact your department's Law Enforcement Online (LEO) representative. If a LEO representative is not available please email leoka-statistics@leo.gov

Is Your Agency Prepared for the Unimaginable?

According to the Officer Down Memorial Page, as of November 17, 123 officers have been killed in the line-of-duty in 2016. This is an increase of 9% from last year. The most alarming increase has been the number of officers killed by gunfire. So far this year 56 officers have been killed by gunfire, a staggering increase of 65% over last year. Would you know where to turn if your agency were to ever experience the loss of an officer in the line-of-duty or due to suicide? In the state of Wisconsin the Law Enforcement Death Response (LEDR) Team is a great resource available to all agencies. The LEDR Team is trained to assist with all details of a death of a law enforcement officer regardless of the circumstances. This includes:

- Death Notification
- Critical Incident Debriefings
- Peer Counseling
- Funeral Service Preparations
- PSOB
- Family Support
- Media Coordination
- Agency logistics

LEDR also works in collaboration with Wisconsin Concerns of Police Survivors, Wisconsin Law Enforcement Memorial Board, Wisconsin Honor Guard Association, and others. LEDR is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. To reach the LEDR team during the time of an officer death call Wisconsin Department of Justice TSCC 608-266-7633. If you have general questions regarding the LEDR team you can email phelansm@doj.state.wi.us. You can also find a tri-fold on Wilenet which has additional information. The best thing you can do for you and your agency is be prepared and hope that this is a resource you will never need to use.

A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER YOU SHOULD KNOW

SUBMIT A LAW ENFORCEMENT MEMBER FOR RECOGNITION

Law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention personnel work tirelessly day-in and day-out to serve and protect our citizens. All too often their daily performance is taken for granted and only becomes newsworthy when something extraordinary happens.

The Department of Justice (DOJ) would like to recognize and provide a format for agencies and peers to recognize law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention officers who exhibit exceptional commitment, dedicated community service, and ethical leadership on a daily basis as they perform their duties. While many awards exist to recognize exceptional service, the so called "routine efforts" can sometimes go unnoticed.

DOJ would like to start featuring these dedicated public servants in the Law Enforcement Bulletin. If you are interested in participating in this great recognition opportunity please submit a candidate through the electronic form now available in the Law Enforcement Bulletin section of WILENET.

On the submission form you will have the opportunity to provide a short bio of the individual and share a story or provide an example of the extra effort, kindness, or creativity that your member shows in their work on a daily basis. A photo of the individual and/or the agency logo is also encouraged. Submissions will be excepted from front-line supervisors or higher and will be reviewed by DOJ staff. The support of our criminal justice partners will make this a successful endeavor and provide some well-deserved recognition to those in the field.

The general Department of Justice mailing address is P.O. Box 7857, Madison, Wisconsin, 53707-7857. Offices are physically located at 17 W. Main Street, Madison, Wisconsin.

Address all correspondence to: Donna Hahn, Editor, Law Enforcement Bulletin, P.O. Box 7857, Madison, WI 53707-7070

Phone: 608-266-5710 hahndg@doj.state.wi.us Fax: 608-266-1656

The deadline for all submissions is the 15th of the month prior to the month of publication.

The matter contained in this bulletin is intended for the use and information of all those involved in the criminal justice system. Nothing contained herein is to be construed as an official opinion or expression of policy by the Attorney General, the Department of Justice, or any other law enforcement official of the State of Wisconsin unless expressly so indicated.

October 29, 2016 Deputy Sheriff Dan Glaze Jr. was shot and killed on the job. On Halloween police officers came from all over Wisconsin to take his son Levi trick-or-treating.

Top Cops: Brown Deer PD Purchase Football Tickets for Local Veteran Who Falls Victim to Scam

After investigating a fraud case where a local veteran had been scammed after having her money stolen while trying to purchase Green Bay Packers tickets, top cops from Brown Deer Police Department took it upon themselves to make sure the veteran was still able to see the Packers play. The story, as told by Fox6:

“Brown Deer police stepped in to save the day for Nicole Hoffmann, the victim in this case — donating replacement Green Bay Packers and Wisconsin Badgers tickets to her — thanking the veteran for her service.

Brown Deer police posted the heartwarming video to Twitter on September 7th.

Hoffmann was brought to tears by the gesture.

“I lost it. I’m still trying not to...it’s...I mean...” Hoffmann said.

She received two tickets to a Packers game, and two tickets to a Badgers game.

“It’s not the Dallas game, but it’s two weeks later, so hopefully that’s close enough to your fiancé’s birthday,” an officer said in the video.

A group of Brown Deer police officers stopped by Hoffmann’s home to hand-deliver the tickets and thank her for her service. The officers and some people close to the officers came together to make the donation possible.

“I felt so embarrassed. I still feel embarrassed. I sent her $550. I try to have faith that there’s nice people in the world and I just became a dummy to the scam,” Hoffmann said.

This scam was reported to Brown Deer police on September 3rd.

“It just kind of bothered me,” Brown Deer Police Officer Nick Andersen said. “It didn’t sit well with me.”

Officer Andersen took it upon himself to make this right.

“Couple of phone calls, a couple of text messages,” Andersen said.

Through friends’ donations, he was able to get four tickets for Hoffmann — two for a Packers game, and two for a Badgers game.

“It’s a small gesture. It’s really not the debt that we owe our veterans. This is nothing,” Andersen said.

Hoffmann said that ‘small gesture’ is something she’ll never forget.

“It gives me faith again that there are good people out there,” Hoffmann said.”

Brown Deer PD did their job to bring the scammer to justice, including coordinating with an agency on the other side of the country, to catch the criminal. But then Brown Deer PD went above the necessary duty to serve a member of the community.
