MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Law Enforcement Colleague –

The Wisconsin Department of Justice (DOJ) Training and Standards Bureau is excited to announce new and revised topics in the basic jail officer training academy curriculum, a continuation of the review of Wisconsin's training curriculums for public safety officers.

In consultation with the Law Enforcement Standards Board, the Training and Standards Bureau develops the basic training curriculum for jail, juvenile detention, and law enforcement officers. In January 2016, a revised law enforcement academy was implemented statewide, expanding training from 520 to 720 hours as new topics were added and others were expanded, such as officer wellness and handgun certification tests.

Now, the Basic Jail Officer Training Academy curriculum has been reviewed and critical updates have been made to help Wisconsin jail officers be safe and successful in their careers. Officers who work in the county jails, "jail officers," are an integral part of the criminal justice system. They are responsible for the supervision, control, and maintenance of the jail and the individuals confined in the jail.

The review of the jail officer training academy curriculum process began with a Developing a Curriculum (DACUM). Thirteen officers from jails of varying sizes and locations met to determine the tasks of an entry level jail officer. This information was then compared to the current curriculum to determine what is already covered versus what topics need to be developed or added. Ground defense skills will be added to provide jail officers with additional tools to survive an unfortunate encounter with an inmate. Wellness and suicide prevention topics are also being added to support officer well-being. Jail officers work under extreme stress and many work overtime hours due to officer shortages. Jail officers must be given the tools to keep their mind, as well as their whole person, healthy.

This increase in critical topics will increase the number of training hours from 160 to 200 hours. Every topic in the academy program has been reviewed for necessity and relevance. To be conscious of the time required for training, some topic hours have been adjusted to keep additional training hours to a minimum. Curriculum changes will be in effect by the fall of 2018.

Wisconsin jail officers are true professionals who are dedicated to their work in maintaining the safety and security of Wisconsin county jails. In turn, we need to be dedicated to them by ensuring they have the training tools necessary to be successful.

The Training & Standards Bureau continues to offer training around the state for all officers to gain the skills and leadership abilities to advance their professional careers. In October, the Department of Justice announced the launch of the Wisconsin Department of Justice Credible Leadership Education website: <http://wi.leicld.com/>.

The Law Enforcement Institute for Credible Leadership Development (LEICLD), developed by the International Academy of Public Safety (IAPS), and endorsed by the Wisconsin Department of Justice Training and Standards Bureau, is a program run in conjunction with the established 21st Century Educational Innovation Hub that has been utilized by more than 38,296 officers for over 6,712,000 hours of on-line education nationwide. This scientific, sustainable, affordable, achievable and reliable leadership development model sharpens the skills of the guardian-servant who leads with compassion, ethical decision-making, emotional intelligence, moral courage, and promotes community cohesiveness.

We are pleased to provide this excellent opportunity for leadership training to the men and women who serve our state.

Thank you again for your support and participation.

Very truly yours,

*Brad D. Schimel
Attorney General*

Village of Somerset v. Hoffman Decided by the Wisconsin Court of Appeals (District III) 5/17/16

Issue:

The viability of a local ordinance prohibiting loitering in a manner not usual for law abiding individuals under circumstances that warrant alarm for citizens, in a gun possession context. Ultimately the court of appeals concluded that though the defendant violated the ordinance he could not be prosecuted because of a state statute requiring that persons can only be prosecuted for an ordinance relating to inappropriate behavior for carrying a firearm, if the person is exhibiting a malicious intent.

Facts:

The defendant was walking down the street at noon with a loaded, semi-automatic rifle on his back. Various individuals, including a crossing guard for a nearby school, saw the defendant and reported their observations to the police and to the school.

The police responded to the location and located the defendant walking along the sidewalk carrying a loaded handgun on his hip in addition to the rifle on his back. The police asked the defendant several questions, and inquired as to why he was carrying firearms and the defendant refused to answer any questions. The police told the defendant that they wanted an explanation so they could go back to the complainants and tell them there was nothing to worry about. The defendant refused to provide any information and then was arrested for violating the loitering ordinance. The loitering ordinance prohibited an individual from loitering in a place at a time and in a manner not usual for law abiding citizens under circumstances that warrant alarm for the safety of persons or property in the vicinity. The defendant was convicted of the ordinance by a jury.

The Defendant's Argument:

The defendant argued, that the ordinance was preempted by Wisconsin Statute 66.0409(2), which prohibits a political subdivision for adopting an ordinance that is more stringent on a citizen than is a state statute dealing with the bearing of firearms. Wisconsin Statute 66.0409(6) states that no ordinance can prohibit the bearing of a firearm unless it can be shown that the defendant exhibited a criminal or malicious intent. Consequently, the defendant argued that the village ordinance he violated, was more stringent than state law since the ordinance did not require a showing of the defendant's malicious or criminal intent. So, the defendant argued that the ordinance was preempted by state law and the charge against him should have been dismissed.

The State's Argument:

The state argued that the ordinance was violated because the defendant's conduct alarmed people and he did not explain his behavior. But the state did not show the defendant had malicious intent, and all of the complaining witnesses contended that their alarm was caused by the presence of the firearms, but not by any demonstrative conduct by the defendant.

The Court of Appeals Holding

Reluctantly, the court agreed with the defendant, and returned the case to the circuit court for dismissal.

The court reasoned that while the defendant violated the statute, by alarming people and not explaining his behavior, he did not exhibit a criminal or malicious intent. The court opined that Wisconsin statutes 66.0409(2) and (6) do not allow for an ordinance to be more stringent on citizens for carrying firearms than is state law. State law requires a showing of malicious or criminal intent. The challenged ordinance only requires a showing that people were disturbed and that the defendant failed to explain his conduct. Thus, the state law preempts the ordinance, and since there was no showing of malicious or criminal intent the charges against the defendant must be dismissed.

The Court of Appeals identified with the complaining citizens in this case, but felt it had no choice because of the legislative dictates in 66.0409(2) and (6)

Cautionary Note

It is possible that the defendant in this case was trying to “set up” the police. Continue to keep in mind that our laws are very favorable to people openly carrying firearms. Be wary of enforcing any laws about bearing arms, when the lone objectionable conduct is the carrying of weapons, and there is no evidence of malicious or criminal intent.

Practical Consideration

The police acted properly when approaching the subject and inquiring about his conduct. The problem occurred when the arrest was made. Do not seize a person who is carrying firearms, solely because people are disturbed, if the person is not doing anything to exhibit malicious intent other than to carry the firearms, and the police know of no reason why the defendant cannot possess a weapon.

Naturally ordinances which are no more stringent on citizens than state law regarding firearms remain enforceable, and state law prohibitions such as possession on school grounds etc. are unaffected by this case.

Case Impact

While this case is unpublished it has persuasive authority and in my view is likely rightly decided, considering the current nature of the law.

The police should be mindful of this case and while they certainly can approach when confronted with situations such as this they should avoid seizing the person unless they reasonably suspect a crime, or a forfeiture they are authorized to enforce, and the ordinance is not more stringent on citizens than is state law relating to firearms.

A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER YOU SHOULD KNOW

SUBMIT A LAW ENFORCEMENT MEMBER FOR RECOGNITION

Law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention personnel work tirelessly day-in and day-out to serve and protect our citizens. All too often their daily performance is taken for granted and only becomes newsworthy when something extraordinary happens.

The Department of Justice (DOJ) would like to recognize and provide a format for agencies and peers to recognize law enforcement officers, jailors, and juvenile detention officers who exhibit exceptional commitment, dedicated community service, and ethical leadership on a daily basis as they perform their duties. While many awards exist to recognize exceptional service, the so called "routine efforts" can sometimes go unnoticed.

DOJ would like to start featuring these dedicated public servants in the Law Enforcement Bulletin. If you are interested in participating in this great recognition opportunity please submit a candidate through the electronic form now available in the Law Enforcement Bulletin section of WILENET.

On the submission form you will have the opportunity to provide a short bio of the individual and share a story or provide an example of the extra effort, kindness, or creativity that your member shows in their work on a daily basis. A photo of the individual and/or the agency logo is also encouraged. Submissions will be accepted from front-line supervisors or higher and will be reviewed by DOJ staff. The support of our criminal justice partners will make this a successful endeavor and provide some well-deserved recognition to those in the field.

The general Department of Justice mailing address is P.O. Box 7857, Madison, Wisconsin, 53707-7857. Offices are physically located at 17 W. Main Street, Madison, Wisconsin.

Top Cop: Appleton PD's Newest Officer

Today's Top Cop is Appleton Police Officer Jacob Frerking. On September 9, 2016, Officer Frerking joined Appleton PD and immediately got to work protecting the City of Appleton. Thanks to Appleton PD and Make-A-Wish Wisconsin, Officer Frerking had a very successful day and achieved his dream of becoming a law enforcement officer.

Read about what Officer Frerking got accomplished on his first day:

On Friday, September 9, 2016, the beautiful sunrise indicated it would indeed be a special day for everyone involved. Jacob arrived in his Appleton Police Department uniform, ready to work. He assisted the honor guard in a flag raising ceremony, was sworn in and attended roll call with officers. Officer Frerking received his assignments for the day; take care of a troublesome speeder and find a "bad guy" who had eluded officers. He handled both tasks in phenomenal fashion. Jacob booked his "bad guy" before trying his hand at simunitions training. He rode in our tactical vehicle to Lutz Park. The Outagamie County Sheriff's Department took him for a ride on the Fox River in their rescue boat.

Jacob's day continued with him testifying in Judge Gill's courtroom. His "bad guy" received a stiff sentence and the community rejoiced. Judge Gill gave him a handcrafted gavel. Officer Frerking and his family had lunch with his department before he was escorted home. The procession was led by the Appleton Fire Department with Jacob riding home in his favorite squad car, a Dodge Charger, provided by the Grand Chute Police Department. Before he went in his house for a well-deserved rest, Jacob was thanked with thunderous applause from officers, deputies, fire fighters and support personnel.

Jacob was given badge number 9275 for his day. The badge number was significant as #75 is the number of his favorite NASCAR driver. In Jacob's honor, the badge number has been retired.

Visit <https://www.doj.state.wi.us/topcops/top-cop-appleton-pd%E2%80%99s-newest-officer> for the complete video of Officer Frerking's first day.

Attorney General Brad Schimel would like to congratulate Officer Frerking on his very successful first day on the job, and to thank him for keeping the City of Appleton safe. Attorney General Schimel would also like to thank Appleton Police Department, Outagamie County Sheriff's Department, and Appleton Fire Department for providing excellent support to the newest member of the Appleton public safety family.
